INTERN INSIGHTS

JAYSEN ARMAS

Videography Intern,
Orange County Riptide
Junior - Cal State Fullerton

RECENT INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE:

Orange County Riptide

Videographer

Jaysen typically arrived about two hours before game time to get some editing done. Then, he'd head down to the field to film batting practice for Instagram Stories. Once the game started, he rotated along the concourse to capture different angles of the action – both on the field and in the stands. Throughout the game, he'd run up to the press box to post highlights, or stay after the game to create a highlight reel of the win or a theme night video.

KEY LEARNINGS:

Takeaways from this role centered on the importance of leadership, efficiency, and communication – all of which helped him excel in this role by ensuring video footage was captured, edited, and executed seamlessly for posting on social media.

JAYSEN'S TIPS

For digital content creators:

- Reach out to your school's SID to get your foot in the door
- Be willing to work for free
- Shoot locally such as your high school or family members' games
